

SOHO Nature

SOHO - More than just 'Small Office Home Office'

SOHO Nature aims to improve the health situation of individuals through natural alternatives and providing them a practical skill to leverage for a secondary source of income. We provide premium handmade soap, soap making workshops and aromatherapy classes to cater to different individual needs.

Upcoming Event

Exclusive! Business Opportunity Sharing:

Empower yourself with home-based business

Event Date: 13 Jun 2015 (Saturday) 2.30pm – 5pm Venue: DPA Premises

Synopsis: Ever wondered how you could start a sustainable business at low cost? Thinking of doing a business from home but unsure which product or service is suitable? Come hear from us on the step-by-step procedure of developing a home-based business, and how you could do it part time with full time returns given the right methods.

We will also be featuring an exclusive “Friends of Soho Nature” program where you could collaborate with us and learn to get your unique business started effectively and see results!

The discussion would include

- Quickly identifying which suitable businesses that you could do from home
- Developing an effective system for long term sustainability of the business
- Proven ways to sell and market your product/service
- A golden opportunity to partner with us for multiple collaborations under an exclusive “Friends of Soho Nature” program

Registration is Free!
